Fort Lauderdale Beach Resort

March 5, 2013

Dear Owners,

Our written notice to you dated February 15th, 2013 is rescinded and superseded by this notice, which shall be effective immediately.

The Blackout Periods will now be as follows:

1. Annual Fort Lauderdale Boat Show;
2. National Football League Super Bowl week, if applicable; and
3. National Football League Pro Bowl week, if applicable.

The following dates are hereby established as Limited Blackout Periods:

- A. President's Day weekend;
- B. Easter week and weekend;
- C. Fort Lauderdale Air Show period;
- D. Memorial Day weekend;
- E. Christmas week and weekend; and
- F. New Year week and weekend.

During the Limited Blackout Periods, an Owner may select any two (2) from the above list, during which the Owner may reserve the use of their unit for such periods. For example, an Owner may select to reserve their unit for the Fort Lauderdale Air Show period and also the Christmas week and weekend.

We respectfully request that the Owner provide us advance written notice at least ninety (90) days prior to the proposed start date of the Owner's stay at the resort during any of the above Limited Blackout Periods.

The providing of advance notice is necessary so that we can accommodate the Owner's request to utilize their unit during a Limited Blackout Period. It should also provide us sufficient time to attempt to relocate or arrange alternative accommodations for a hotel guest that may have already confirmed a room reservation for use of that unit during the same period selected by the owner of the unit.

We appreciate your attention and cooperation and wish you a wonderful 2013!

Sincerely,

Georgios Atzemoglou
